Temporary suspension and anticipated resumption of the issuance of certificates
by the Offices for Issuing Certificates of Origin

Due to the continuing instability of some parts of our system for issuing certificates of origin, we are temporarily suspending the issuance of certificates and other procedures at the issuing offices. We apologize for any inconvenience this issue may cause. After the restoration of the system is confirmed, the issuing offices are resuming issuing the certificates accordingly. In the immediate future, there may be delays in the issuance of the certificates. We are sincerely sorry about any inconvenience this may cause and appreciate your understanding.

For any inquiries, please contact us at the below department. Thank you very much for your cooperation.

- Issuance suspension period (at the maximum)
From Monday, September 27 to Thursday, September 30
- All offices will resume issuing the certificates by:
Friday, October 1
